The Bible in a Tweet

'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus answered, 'You must love the Lord your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Matthew 22: 36 – 40

I have been meeting with a young person recently, to begin to talk about faith and the journey of navigating the bible. We came to the conclusion that if you wanted to sum up the bible in one paragraph, then the one above would do nicely. And if Jesus had wanted to tweet, the Old Testament Scriptures could be distilled down to 'You must love.'

If we look at Matthew 22 closely, we find that although it contains two commands to love, it holds 3 important instructions on love. We should love God, we should love others and equally we should love ourselves. This last one of loving ourselves can often get left out of the equation, but it is inextricably caught up in the other two. If we draw near to God, then we begin to expose ourselves to God's love and we learn to experience and understand that we are loved. It is like the baby receiving their parents loving smiles and gaze, gradually they begin to take in and understand a parent's love.

When, in our walk of faith, we come to experience God's unique love, then we can begin to accept and love ourselves. This is a huge step forward in loving, because then we not only reciprocate God's love, but turn towards others in love. It's an odd thing really, but every time we can accept ourselves, we are freed from preoccupation about ourselves to really turn and see others as they are. We can look at them for the first time to see their struggles and challenges as well as their joys and happiness. The more we can accept ourselves as we are, the more we can accept everyone else. It's all about learning to receive God's love and finding the worth in ourselves that will free us to love others. As Charles Wesley captures it, we are transformed into all that God would have us be, through being "lost in wonder, love and praise"- surely a tweet distilling the New Testament to its essence. P.T.O.

*Finish then thy new creation;
pure and spotless let us be;
let us see thy great salvation
perfectly restored in thee:
changed from glory into glory,
till in heaven we take our place,
till we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love, and praise.*

Prayer

We pray for our friends who are ill, housebound or bereaved and for those in residential care: Joan Field at Merrie Loots Farm, Marie Moore at Archers Court in Hitchin and Margaret Ross at Memory House.

Our thoughts and prayers are with them and their families at this time.

Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to Pat Gare, Alison, Gabrielle, John and all their family and friends on the death of David Gare who passed away on 7th August. David had been a stalwart of Highlands for many years and his input and concern for Highlands will be sadly missed.

Congratulations

To Irene and Tony Downing who celebrate their 65th Wedding Anniversary on 3rd September with the renewing of their vows.

Thank You

Jean and Frank Edmonds would like to thank all their dear friends for their good wishes, presents and donations to celebrate their Golden Wedding. The donations will be split between Serving the Homeless, Christian Aid and redecorating the sanctuary.

Church Notices that didn't quite make it...

A talk on drugs will be given at the next Mothers' Union meeting. This will be followed by a Bring and Buy Sale.

A sudden gust of wind took all who were at the ceremony by surprise. Hats were blown off and copies of the vicar's speech and other rubbish were scattered over the site.

The Rector is on holiday this month. Local clergy will be celebrating with us all the Sundays that he is away.

Don't allow anxiety to kill you. Let the church help.

Don't miss the Young Wives' Victorian evening next month. It will be a fun night and some of the women will wear clothes.

Dates to Remember

Knit and Natter Social Group

We are a friendly group of ladies who meet on Tuesday morning from 10am to noon during term time. Some of us knit, some crochet and some of us just natter. We enjoy each other's company and a cup of coffee/tea and biscuit. You will be made very welcome if you would like to join us.

Highlands Hobbies

We meet on 1st September for card making, flowers, needlework and anything we fancy doing. We have coffee, tea, cake and plenty of chat.

We follow with lunch for those who wish to stay. We are now the proud owners of a catering trolley for all to use. This was purchased with a donation from Betty Garrood's family in her memory.

It will soon be time to start our Christmas crafts and we look to Marjorie and Pat for ideas.

We will also meet on Thursday 15th September from 10 to 12 noon.

All are welcome

Jean 525250 - Ros 478631

MOTHs

On Tuesday 13th September at 2.15 there will be afternoon tea and sing-song. Open to anyone who would like to come along and join in.

Gift Day

There will be a Gift Day to support the work of Highlands on Sunday 18th September when Rev Julia will be leading the service. It is also the service for Rededication of Pastoral Visitors and Youth Workers.

There will be special envelopes to use for your Gift Day contribution.

ABRSM Exams

The next set of exams will take place during November and the first part of December. Definitive dates to be advised later.

COFFEE MORNINGS

A list has been put in the Jubilee Room showing vacant slots for Saturday Coffee Mornings from September. If you wish to run any, please indicate on the list the days that you would like. In case of conflict please contact Les Davis.

Harvest Festival at Highlands

This year we celebrate our Harvest Festival on Sunday 11th September during our morning service.

The gifts this year will go to HARP (Homeless Action Research Project) A list of current requirements is posted at the back of the Church but don't forget the other bathroom requirements such as toothbrush and toothpaste, flannels, soap and small sachets of shampoo etc. etc..

As our uniformed organisations are not expected to be present, as they have only just started to meet again after the Summer holidays, we need to make an extra special effort.

Anyone who would like to help in decorating our church for Harvest Festival please come along at 10.00 am on Saturday 10th September. If you have flowers, greenery and berries to donate that would be greatly appreciated. (Jean 525250)

The 2016 Week of Accompanied Prayer

From Sunday 9th – Sunday 16th October, the Leigh Section will be joining with St Clements to hold a Week of Accompanied Prayer.

Why are we having a Week of Accompanied Prayer (WAP)?

The purpose of such weeks is to encourage people in their prayer lives by providing an opportunity to reflect each day on their prayer, in the company of a prayer guide, or companion. What an individual participant experiences, over the course of the week, will be unique to them. For example, one may learn different ways in which to pray, another be helped to overcome a difficulty they have with prayer and someone else may simply begin to pray regularly for the first time. Often people experience a new or deeper meaning in their prayer and a greater awareness of God's presence in their daily lives.

It sounds like a retreat. If I take part, do I have to go somewhere special for the whole week?

A WAP is like a retreat but it doesn't involve going away for the week. Each day you will meet with your guide for thirty minutes either at one of the section churches or at St Clements. You will be invited to set aside thirty minutes to pray on your own each day. For the rest of the time the activities of your day continue as they would normally whilst feeding into and being fed by prayer.

Who are the Prayer Guides?

The team of prayer guides may include women and men of various denominations, some lay, some ordained and possibly some members of religious orders. All will have received training in helping others in their prayer. The role of the guide is mainly to listen: to accompany the participants during the week, encouraging each person to honour his or her own prayer and to be aware of how it may be developed.

Does the WAP cost anything?

Although the WAP is free to join, the week will cost in the region of £500 to put on and therefore we suggest that you consider making a donation of £5 to £10 to contribute to these costs.

P.T.O.

Where can I get more information?

Between June and the beginning of October more information will be available through:

Leaflets at the back of church

Meetings: 11am 9th July St Clement's
8pm 28th July Wesley Methodist

These meetings will explain how the week works and answer other questions that you may have. You are invited to attend the meeting which is most convenient for you.

If you are uncertain whether the WAP is for you, please feel free to talk with Rev Julia

Some feedback from participants in the WAP last year:

Before the WAP I was nervous and not sure if I was doing the right thing for me. I am grateful to the WAP for making me aware of the benefit of a dedicated time for prayer.

Before the WAP my feelings and expectations were that something suitable for me and my needs was being offered. It helped me to become more aware of the presence of God within and around me.

I am grateful to the WAP because it has cleared my head of unnecessary "gabbling" at prayer and has shown me the value of silence and how God really speaks to me in the silence!

EDDIE the EAGLE

Friday 23rd September at 1.30 pm

Eddie the Eagle follows the realisation of the childhood dream of Eddie Edwards (Taron Egerton) and his unflinching determination to become Great Britain's first Olympic Ski-jumper. Eddie is unwavering in his quest to reach the 1988 Calgary Winter Games.

Eddie the Eagle is an uplifting, inspirational story that celebrates human spirit, passion and one man's refusal to accept defeat.

A FREE event (come from 12 noon with your picnic lunch and enjoy some soup. Tea and coffee also available)

Children's understanding of the Bible can have a charm all its own...

A deacon is a mass of inflammable material.

The Pharisees fasted in public but in private they devoured widows' houses.

Today wild beasts are confined to Theological Gardens.

The natives of Macedonia did not believe, so St. Paul got stoned.

A Republican is a sinner mentioned in the Bible.

Iran is the Bible of the Moslems.

Highlands 90th Anniversary Celebrations

On Saturday 22nd October we commence our celebrations with coffee morning commencing at 10.00 am and a display of memorabilia from the past 90 years.

{If you have anything that you would like to show during the weekend please talk with Ros Bryant to arrange a display.}

There will also be ploughman lunches available, especially for those who may have travelled from afar.

During the afternoon tea and cakes will be served.

At 5.00pm there will be entertainment in the Church Hall, the original Church, including some "Barber Shop" music from Gaudeamus, "Songs from the Shows" by the Mencap group that meets on our premises, contribution from our uniformed organisations, monologues and a special "Pantomime" written by Trevor Metcalfe for our "old" pantomimers. This will last about 1 1/2 to 2 hours. You can imagine how difficult it might become to fine tune this, but we hope to be finished by 7.00 pm.

Interest is growing for an old pantomimers reunion on the Saturday, some are happy "to tread the boards", others who would just like to attend. Please contact Jean or Frank at : - frank66thecroft@sky.com and spread the word to your fellow pantomimers to come and celebrate our 90th birthday.

On Sunday 23rd October our morning service of holy communion will be led by Rev Margaret Millar and we will be joined by our friends from Belfairs, New Road and Wesley.

Following the service a buffet lunch will be available in the Church Hall supplied by "Affinity". Please sign up on the list in the Jubilee Room if you would like to partake.

We will need much help to make our celebration a success. Please contact Frank and Jean if you can help in any way and come to our meeting on 19th September at 8.00 pm. Thank you
