Message from your Minister:-

Leave the rest to God

The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light. Those who once lived in gloom, now have light shining upon them. A child is born to us! He is called, "Wonderful," "Counselor," "Mighty God," "Eternal Father," and "Prince of Peace."
Isaiah 9: 2, 6

I write this letter with snow promised on Sunday and the shops now full of mince pies, Christmas cake and tinsel, and my attention is drawn once more to carol services and Christingle making.

At this time of year, Christians celebrate Jesus as the "child born to us," who is our light. Yet, I reflect that Jesus born as a baby could do nothing by himself. He needed to be fed, clothed, and protected. As a baby, he was simply a child of God. During Advent it is our practice to contemplate our spiritual temperature and to think upon what it means to live a moral and giving lifestyle. When we are challenged with our own shortcomings and character flaws, our discipleship calls us to hand these things to God, who we trust will transform them into glory.

You see, our call is not to be the light, but to be God's glory. We are to allow the light of God to shine through us, without blocking this glory through anxiety and preoccupation. In a way, with Jesus, we are to be at peace with our helplessness and insignificance and make ourselves available to let the light shine through us.

This is something, which I think Rev Hannah has been embracing in her town centre ministry; and reflecting on at the Chaplaincy Course, recently held at Highlands. A form of spirituality and mission, that makes one's self available to God for conversation with others, but then leaves the deep spiritual work to God, confident that Jesus is the light and not ourselves.

There is a life-giving, reprioritising truth here to be embraced, as we busy ourselves in our preparations for Christmas and within our churches. We are not the light, what a relief; we are merely to reflect it, being the glory of God and then leave the rest to Him.

Spiritual Exercise.

In your preparations for Christmas, consider and be at peace with both your insignificance and glory as a child of God. Then ask yourself the following questions.

- Where do you experience the light or energy of God in your life?
- How might you try to multiply your God given opportunities to allow the light of God to shine through you and reach others?

In prayer, imagine yourself as a shepherd before Jesus at the manger. Allow the light of God's glory shining around and through the child Jesus, to penetrate your soul. Silently sit, warmed by the light and energy of God's overflowing love and leave the rest to him. Amen

Prayers for Christmas*God of gold, we seek to reflect your glory:

the richness that transforms our drabness into colour,
and brightens our dullness with vibrant light;
your wonder and joy at the heart of all life.

God of incense, we offer you our prayer:

our spoken and unspeakable longings, our questioning of truth,
our search for your mystery deep within.

God of myrrh, we cry out to you in our suffering:

the pain of all our rejections and bereavements,
our baffled despair at undeserved suffering,
our rage at continuing injustice;
and we embrace you, God-with-us,
in our wealth, in our yearning, in our anger and loss
that your light might shine through us. Amen

Prayer by Jan Berry: Bread of Tomorrow

Welcome Christ, welcome baby Jesus,

We are ready for you now.

Here are our hearts – make us your manger

Here are our lives – make us your Bethlehem

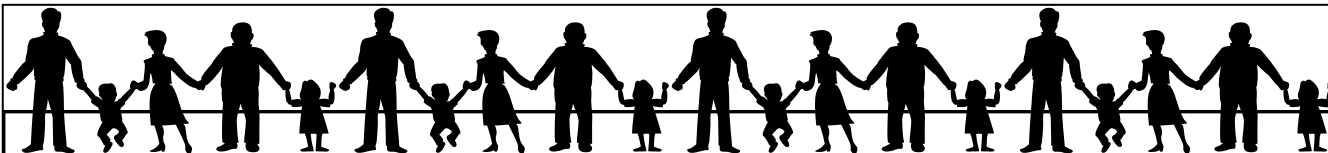

Here is your church – make us your Body.

Welcome Jesus Christ.

Eddi's Service (A.D. 687)

EDDI, priest of St. Wilfrid
In his chapel at Manhood End,
Ordered a midnight service
For such as cared to attend.

But the Saxons were keeping
Christmas,
And the night was stormy as well.
Nobody came to service,
Though Eddi rang the bell.

'Wicked weather for walking,'
Said Eddi of Manhood End.
'But I must go on with the service
For such as care to attend.

The altar-lamps were lighted, –
An old marsh-donkey came,
Bold as a guest invited,
And stared at the guttering flame.

The storm beat on at the windows,
The water splashed on the floor,
And a wet, yoke-weary bullock
Pushed in through the open door.

'How do I know what is greatest,
How do I know what is least?
That is My Father's business,'
Said Eddi, Wilfrid's priest.

But – three are gathered together –
Listen to me and attend.
I bring good news, my brethren!
Said Eddi of Manhood End.

And he told the Ox of a Manger
And a Stall in Bethlehem,
And he spoke to the Ass of a Rider,
That rode to Jerusalem.

They steamed and dripped in the chancel,
They listened and never stirred,
While, just as though they were
Bishops,
Eddi preached them The Word,

Till the gale blew off on the marshes
And the windows showed the day,
And the Ox and the Ass together
Wheeled and clattered away.

And when the Saxons mocked him,
Said Eddi of Manhood End,
'I dare not shut His chapel
On such as care to attend.'

Methodist relief and development

At Christmas we celebrate the coming of Jesus, God's extraordinary gift to us. It is a season of thanksgiving, as we reflect on our wonderful God, who loved the world so much that he gave us his only Son. A God who offered a practical response to a broken world in need of restoration.

All We Can is the Methodist relief and development partner which helps people to find solutions to poverty and become all that they can. It is inspired by Jesus' command to love our neighbour and is grounded in the Methodist tradition of social justice and going to those who are in greatest need. All We Can does this by investing in partnerships with talented local people who hold a vision and a drive to improve quality of life and create positive, long-term change in the communities that they serve.

As a church we will be devoting our collections over Christmas to this good cause.

Be Kind to Clergy this Christmas

One of the most thoughtful presents you could give this Christmas might simply be to be sensitive to all our local clergy and their families as they embark on this, the busiest time of the church year. The vast majority of clergy are conscientious and very hard-working, wanting to make the most of every opportunity for Christian witness and celebration that Christmas provides. You can help: they will value your practical support and prayers – and Christmas cheer!

Debt Despair - Don't go there this year

Christian charities are warning people not to get into debt this Christmas, so that they will not be vulnerable if interest rates and/or energy bills rise next year.

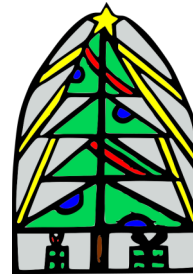

Instead, Christians Against Poverty urges people to carefully plan what they will spend, to ask relatives for help with children's presents, and to enjoy all the low-cost things on offer – the lights in town, get-togethers, making mince pies, playing family board games, and seeing the kids in their school nativity.

Highlands Advent Calendar

We are celebrating Christmas in the community this year, with an Advent Calendar using shop, business and house windows, along Thames Drive and London Road. From the 1st December a new window will be lit, until 24 windows are shining. Come and be part of the fun by picking up a competition form to identify which Christmas character is found in which window.

Application forms are available from andrewhyde@aol.com and should be returned to him by 23rd December. The winner will be pulled out of the hat at the 5pm Christmas Eve Christingle Service, at Highlands Methodist Church, Sutherland Boulevard. Whether it has been the nativity trail or searching for lost sheep, the Highlands' community always enjoys coming together to celebrate this joyful time of year.

Changing Patters of Worship for 2016

The stewards and church council have been giving some thought as to how to make worship at Highlands sustainable for the coming year, recognizing the pressure on resources for organists and stewards. A thoughtful discussion took place at Church Council on the 8th October and the following plan will be implemented from January 2016. On the 1st Sunday in the month, there will be a 9.30am informal worship service at Highlands followed by breakfast. Transport will then be available, to facilitate attendance at the 11am Communion Service at Wesley, where Rev Julia will be presiding. Where there is a 5th Sunday in the month, worship will also be at Wesley. Worship at Highlands on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Sunday of the month, will remain the same pattern as before. Church Council viewed this mixed economy, of participating in some services together and some services individually, as a positive way forward in sustaining the valued community at Highlands. Wesley church council have heard these plans and offer a warm welcome to their friends in Christ.
